

CITY OF BURNET DESIGNATED HISTORIC PROPERTIES

- 310 South Main, Historic District
- Burnet Hotel, 203 E Jackson, Historic District
- Craddock House, 302 S. Boundary, Historic District
- 211 E. Jackson, Historic District
- 222 S. Main, Historic District
- 228 S. Main, Historic District
- 210 S. Main, Historic District

STATE AND FEDERAL DESIGNATED HISTORIC PROPERTIES WITHIN THE CITY LIMITS OF THE CITY OF BURNET

The following properties are designated either by the State of Texas or by the Register of Historic Places as historical properties.

- Airy Mount – Hwy. 29 East (currently the Airy Mount B&B)
- Badger Building – corner of East Jackson and Pierce Street
- Burnet Bulletin – 101 E. Jackson - corner of South Main and East Jackson (currently the offices of Dr. Brian Kingsford)
- Burnet County Courthouse – 220 S. Pierce (National historic marker) Courthouse square
- Burnet County Jail – corner of Washington and Pierce (northeast corner of courthouse square) currently used for County offices.
- Masonic Lodge – 309 S. Main (Oldest commercial building in Burnet)
- Magill Family Cemetery- Burnet Municipal Airport
- Cook Home – 200 N. Main Street (private residence)

- Fort Croghan – 703 W. SH 29 (Museum and grounds, Vanderveer cabin and powder house) See www.fortcroghan.org for schedules.
- Galloway House – 108 E. League, currently the Verandas B&B
- Rocky Rest – 404 S. Water (private residence)
- Russell/McFarland Home – 309 N. Boundary (private residence)
- George Whitaker Home – 802 S. Main (private residence)